The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 13, to Tuesday September 16, 1755.

Whitehall, September 16.

THE King landed this Day about Noon at Margate, and arrived at Kenſington about Nine o'Clock this Night, in perfect Health.

Munich, Aug. 20. On Monday laſt the Elector of Cologn took Leave of all the Princes and Princeſſes, and Yeſterday Morning he ſet out for Italy, accompanied by the Baron de Roll, his Maſter of the Horſe. His Highneſs travels incognito, by the Name of the Count de Werth, and propoſes taking his Route by Inſpruck, Verone, Venice, &c.

Bareith, Aug. 24. The Duke and Dutcheſs of Wirtemberg, who came here a few Days ago, to congratulate the Margrave and Margravine our Sovereigns on their ſafe Return from their late Tour to Italy, ſet out laſt Tueſday Morning for Wirtemberg.

Cologn, Aug. 24. We hear from Coblentz, that the Elector of Treves, who had lately the Misfortune to fall down Stairs and hurt his Knee, is ſo well recovered, that he intends to ſet out in a few Days for Schonbornluſt for the Remainder of the Summer. The Elector Palatin, and the Electreſs his Spouſe, who embarked at Manheim laſt Thurſday with a numerous Retinue, paſſed by here this Morning, and were ſaluted by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon upon our Ramparts. 'Tis thought their Electoral Highneſſes will reach Duſſeldorp this Evening.

Stuttgard, Aug. 25. On Wedneſday laſt the Duke our Sovereign, and the Dutcheſs his Spouſe, arrived at Ludwigsbourg from Bareith, and on Saturday their Serene Highneſſes came to their Palace in this City, in order to celebrate, on the 6th of next Month, the Anniverſary of the Birth of her Highneſs the Dutcheſs, for which the neceſſary Preparations are already making.

Frankfort, Aug. 25. On Monday laſt, in the Afternoon, we had a moſt violent Hurricane in theſe Parts, which ſtripped off the Tiles from a great Number of Houſes, and did other conſiderable Damage. 'Tis reckoned that upwards of one Thouſand Trees were blown down by the Storm in the Neighbourhood of Croonenberg, a ſmall Town about four Leagues from hence, belonging to the Elector of Mayence. We hear from Hanau, that the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel is expected there next Week. They write from Stuttgard, that the Duke and Dutcheſs of Wirtemberg returned there laſt Saturday from Bareith. We have received Advice, that the Princeſs of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen was, a few Days ago, ſafely delivered of a Prince at the Caſtle of Sigmaringen, who was baptized by the Names of Joachim-Adam-Marie-Antoine, &c.

Munich, Aug. 26. The Elector and Electreſs, who went laſt Week to Iſerock, to take the Diverſion of Hunting in that Neighbourhood, and afterwards to Landſhut, returned to their Palace in this City Yeſterday, which being the Feaſt of St. Lewis, whoſe Name the Margrave of Baden-Baden, Brother-in-Law to the Elector, bears, there was a very brilliant Court to compliment their Electoral Highneſſes on that Occaſion.

Duſſeldorp, Aug. 26. Laſt Night the Elector our Sovereign arrived here with his Spouſe, and this Morning they were complimented thereupon by the Nobility, Gentry, Magiſtrates, and all the Officers of the Garriſon.

Dreſden, Aug. 31. His Pruſſian Majeſty, conſidering the Loſs his Subjects ſuſtain by the Prohibition of Commerce with Saxony, has agreed to the ſettling of it upon the former Footing. In Conſequence thereof, it has been ſignified to the Merchants here, who traffick by the Way of Magdeburgh, that they may ſend their Veſſels down the Elbe to the ſame Place. However the Merchants in Leipzig, upon Notice received of it, have deſired that, as they had already ordered thoſe Goods and Effects required for the next Fair to be carried by Waggons from Hamburgh, and as it would be a Detriment to them if the like Goods ſhould be ſold here at a cheaper Rate as coming by Water, the Grant to go down the Elbe might be deſer'd for a Fortnight; ſo this their Deſire has been agreed to, and when that Time is elapſed, the Commerce will be opened again.

Vienna, Sept. 3. The Emperor went on Saturday laſt to Schloſs-Hoſt, where, and in the Neighbourhood, his Imperial Majeſty will take the Diverſion of Hunting until the 11th Inſtant. Baron Klinggrave, the Pruſſian Miniſter at this Court, is gone to wait upon the King his Maſter, who is to be on the 4th Inſtant at Neiſs in Sileſia, to make the annual Review of his Troops there; from whence that Miniſter will return hither, upon his Pruſſian Majeſty's going back to Berlin. The Turkiſh Envoy, after having had his Audiences of Leave from their Imperial Majeſties, waited, on Saturday laſt, upon Count Coloredo, Vice Chancellor of the Empire; and, the Monday following, upon Count Kaunitz, Great Chancellor of the Court; when both thoſe Miniſters delivered to him reſpectively, the Emperor's and the Empreſs's Preſents for him, and for the Chiefs of his Attendants; ſo that he will ſet out, on his Return to Conſtantinople, in a few Days, extremely well ſatisfied with all the Civilities and Favours which he has received during during his Stay at this Court; and which, it must be owned, he deserved, by his decent and polite Behaviour.

Copenhagen, Sept. 6. The Anniversary of the Queen of Denmark's Birth-Day was celebrated, on the 4th Instant, at Friedensburg, in the usual Manner, and some Promotions were then made; the following Privy Counsellors, viz. M. de Plessen, M. vonder Osten, and M. des Mercieres, having received, on that Occasion, a certain Augmentation of Dignity, by the Title of Privy Counsellors of Conference.

Brussels, Sept. 9. According to our last Advices from Mons, the Prince of Soubise remained at Aimerie, where the Head Quarters were fixed; but the Troops under his Command were still in their Cantonments last Saturday. As the Weather seems to mend, we expect to hear, in a Day or two, of their being returned into their Camp. We likewise hear from Richemont, that the Troops assembled there have been also obliged, on Account of the Badness of the Weather, to break up their Camp, and to go into Cantonments. The Corps encamped at Aimerie consists of sixteen Battalions and twenty eight Squadrons, and that at Richemont of fifteen Battalions and twenty six Squadrons.

Brussels, Sept. 12. Upon the Appearance of fine Weather, the French Troops had received Orders to prepare to quit their Cantonments, and to return into their Camp at Aimerie last Wednesday; but as we have again had continual Rain for these three Days past, it is supposed that those Orders will have been countermanded. Count Lannoy, Governor of this City, was found dead in his Bed last Wednesday Morning.

Venice, Aug. 29. This Evening his Serene Highness the Elector of Cologne arrived here in his Way to Rome.
